From June 1 to December 8, 2017, Program on Extremism researchers tracked, analyzed, and coded 604 pro-Islamic State (IS) channels containing English-language content on the messaging application Telegram.¹

1. For more information on the method researchers used, see the About page.
2. Telegram is not responsible for, and does not endorse, IS-related content on its application.

The average number of channel members was 153. The most popular channel had 1,605 members.

WHAT PERCENTAGE OF CHANNELS DISCUSSED THESE POPULAR TOPICS?³

- 61% discussed IS military activities in Syria and Iraq
- 47% discussed IS affiliates' activities in other areas of the world.
- 13% discussed IS non-military activities (infrastructure, governance, etc.).
- 18% discussed news and events in Europe or North America.
- 14% discussed cybersecurity or information security.
- 11% discussed IS attacks in Europe or North America

³ English-language content only.