I, [REDACTED], am a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and have served in that capacity since 2014. In my duties as a Special Agent, I have experience with investigations and legal process involving threats to federal officials and matters of national security. By virtue of my employment with the FBI, I am authorized to conduct investigations into violations of U.S. law. I am an investigative or law enforcement officer of the United States within the meaning of Section 2510(7) of Title 18 United States Code. As a Special Agent, I am authorized by law or by a Government agency to engage in or supervise the prevention, detection, investigation, or prosecution of violations of Federal criminal laws.

Background

The U.S. Capitol is secured 24 hours a day by U.S. Capitol Police. Restrictions around the U.S. Capitol include permanent and temporary security barriers and posts manned by U.S. Capitol Police. Only authorized people with appropriate identification were allowed access inside the U.S. Capitol. On January 6, 2021, the exterior plaza of the U.S. Capitol was also closed to members of the public.

On January 6, 2021, a joint session of the United States Congress convened at the United States Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C. During the joint session, elected members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate were meeting in separate chambers of the United States Capitol to certify the vote count of the Electoral College of the 2020 Presidential Election, which had taken place on November 3, 2020. The joint session began at approximately 1:00 p.m. Shortly thereafter, by approximately 1:30 p.m., the House and Senate adjourned to separate chambers to resolve a particular objection. Vice President Mike Pence was present and presiding, first in the joint session, and then in the Senate chamber.

As the proceedings continued in both the House and the Senate, and with Vice President Mike Pence present and presiding over the Senate, a large crowd gathered outside the U.S. Capitol. As noted above, temporary and permanent barricades were in place around the exterior of the U.S. Capitol building, and U.S. Capitol Police were present and attempting to keep the crowd away from the Capitol building and the proceedings underway inside.

At such time, the certification proceedings were still underway and the exterior doors and windows of the U.S. Capitol were locked or otherwise secured. Members of the U.S. Capitol Police attempted to maintain order and keep the crowd from entering the Capitol; however, around 2:00 p.m., individuals in the crowd forced entry into the U.S. Capitol, including by breaking windows and by assaulting members of the U.S. Capitol Police, as others in the crowd encouraged and assisted those acts.

Shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:20 p.m. members of the United States House of Representatives and United States Senate, including the President of the Senate, Vice President Mike Pence, were instructed to—and did—evacuate the chambers. Accordingly, the joint session of the United States Congress was effectively suspended until shortly after 8:00 p.m. Vice President Pence remained in the United States Capitol from the time he was evacuated from the Senate Chamber until the sessions resumed.

During national news coverage of the aforementioned events, video footage which appeared to be captured on mobile devices of persons present on the scene depicted evidence of violations of local and federal law, including scores of individuals inside the U.S. Capitol building without authority to be there.

Conduct of Anthony Vuksanaj

On June 6, 2021, ANTHONY VUKSANAJ of Mahopac, New York and two other individuals were arrested and charged with first degree robbery in connection with an alleged knife-point robbery that occurred that day. In connection with that arrest, officers seized a mobile device from VUKSANAJ's person (the "VUKSANAJ Phone") at the Westchester County Police Department during VUKSANAJ's booking procedures. The VUKSANAJ Phone was on VUKSANAJ's person at the time of the arrest. The booking report for VUKSANAJ lists his phone number as xxx-xxx-9488 ("x9488").<sup>1</sup>

On the day of the arrest, Detectives from the Westchester County Police Department interviewed VUKSANAJ about his alleged involvement in the robbery. He denied involvement.

According to records obtained through a search warrant served on AT&T, on January 6, 2021, in and around the time of the events at the Capitol described above, the cell phone associated with x9488 was identified as having used a cell site consistent with providing service to a geographic area that included the grounds and the interior of the United States Capitol building.

Additional AT&T records identified the subscriber of the cellphone associated with x9488 as VUKSANAJ, at an address in Mahopac, NY.<sup>2</sup> According to the records, VUKSANAJ has used this telephone number since March of 2005.

Following the events of January 6, 2021, the FBI received a tip containing a video believed to capture rioters inside the U.S. Capitol building on January 6, 2021. Exhibits A1 and A2, below, are two screenshots of the video provided with the tip. One of the detectives who interviewed VUKSANAJ as part of the New York robbery investigation ("Detective 1") identified the individual circled in Exhibits 1A and 1B as VUKSANAJ.

Exhibit 1A

Exhibit 1B

Open source video filmed by film maker/journalist Nickolas Quested (who was producing a documentary for the National Geographic Channel) from inside the Capitol building on January 6, 2021, captured additional video footage of individuals inside the Capitol during the events described above. Exhibit 2 contains a screenshot of footage from one such video. Based on a comparison of the video provided from the tip described above wherein Detective 1 was able to identify VUKSANAJ, the booking photograph of VUKSANAJ taken in connection with his New York arrest, and the open source video, I believe that the individual circled in Exhibit 2 who is holding a cell phone is VUKSANAJ.

EXHIBIT 2

Closed circuit television (CCTV) from inside the Capitol building (Senate Wing Door, North Side) on January 6, 2021, captured additional video footage of individuals inside the Capitol. Exhibit 3 contains a screenshot of footage from one such video at approximately 2:20 PM. Based on a comparison of the video provided from the tip described above, the booking photograph of VUKSANAJ taken in connection with his arrest, and the CCTV video, I believe that the individual circled in Exhibit 3 who is holding a cell phone is VUKSANAJ.

EXHIBIT 3

Additional CCTV from inside the Capitol building on January 6, 2021 captured additional video footage of individuals inside the Capitol that day. Exhibit 4 contains a screenshot of footage from one such video at approximately 2:27 PM (19:27:05 UTC). Based on a comparison of the video provided from the tip described above, the booking photograph of VUKSANAJ taken in connection with his arrest, and the CCTV video, I believe that the individual circled in Exhibit 4 who is holding a cell phone is VUKSANAJ.
