AO 245B (Rev. 1985年 July 1996年 1996
Judgment-Page 3 of 7
DEFENDANT: Armin Harcevic
CASE NUMBER: 4:15CR00049-5 CDP
District: Eastern District of Missouri
SUPERVISED RELEASE
Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three years.
This term consists of a term of three years on each of counts one and three, such terms to run concurrently.
MANDATORY CONDITIONS
1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)  7. You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)
You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page

bec	part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed ause they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation cers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.
1.	You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2.	After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3.	You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4.	You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5.	You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6.	You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7.	You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8.	You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9.	If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10.	You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11.	You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12.	If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13.	You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.
U.	S. Probation Office Use Only
	J.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment staining these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions ,

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervision, you must comply with the following additional special conditions. If it is determined there are costs associated with any services provided, you shall pay those costs based on a co-payment fee established by the probation office:

You must not purchase or maintain a post office box, any other type of private mail box or any type of storage locker, unit or facility without written approval of the probation office.

You must provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The probation office may share financial information with the U.S. Attorney's Office.

You must immediately report or surrender to U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement and follow all their instructions and reporting requirements until any deportation proceedings are completed.

If you are ordered deported from the United States, you must remain outside the United States, unless legally authorized to re-enter. If you re-enter the United States, you must report to the nearest probation office within 72 hours after you return.

You must submit your person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office, to a search conducted by a United States probation officer. You must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. The probation officer may conduct a search under this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you have violated a condition of supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.
