SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

3 years, which consists of 3 years at each of Counts One, Two, Three, Four, Five, Six and Eight of the Indictment to run concurrently.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: KHALED MIAH
CASE NUMBER: 21-CR-110

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. DEFENDANT: KHALED MIAH
CASE NUMBER: 21-CR-110

ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

1. The defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.
2. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon.
3. The defendant shall participate in a mental health assessment and/or treatment program approved by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Court. Based upon his ability to pay, the defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of services in an amount determined by the Probation Office. These costs shall not exceed the actual cost of the service. The Probation Office is authorized to release the defendant's presentence report to the treatment provider if so requested.
4. The defendant shall participate in a program of testing and, if necessary, treatment for substance abuse, said program to be approved by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Court. Further, based on his ability to pay, the defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of services for any such treatment in an amount determined by the probation officer but not to exceed the actual cost. The defendant shall submit to one drug urinalysis within 15 days after being placed on supervision and at least two periodic tests thereafter.
5. It is further ordered that the defendant shall not intentionally purchase, possess and/or use any substance(s) designed to simulate or alter in any way the defendant's own urine specimen. In addition, the defendant shall not purchase, possess and/or use any device(s) designed to be used for the submission of a third-party urine specimen.
6. The defendant shall participate in an alcohol aftercare treatment program approved by the probation officer, which may include urine testing, until released from the program by the Court. The defendant shall not use or possess alcohol. Based on his ability to pay, the defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of services in an amount determined by the Probation Office. These costs shall not exceed the actual cost of the service.
7. The defendant shall participate in the United States Probation Office's Workforce Development Program as directed by the probation officer.
8. The defendant is permitted to possess or use a computer and is allowed access to the Internet. The defendant shall consent to the installation of any hardware or software to monitor any computer, or other electronic communication or data storage devices used by the defendant to confirm compliance with this condition. Based on his ability to pay, the defendant shall pay the monitoring costs as directed by the probation or pretrial services officer. Furthermore, the defendant shall consent to periodic unannounced examinations by the probation or pretrial services officer of any computers, cell phones, or other electronic communication or data storage devices that the defendant has access to, to confirm compliance with this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall consent to the seizure and removal of hardware and data storage media for further analysis by the probation or pretrial services officer, based upon reasonable suspicion of a violation of the conditions imposed in this case, or based upon reasonable suspicion of unlawful conduct by the defendant. Failure to submit to the monitoring or search of computers and other electronic communication or data storage devices used by the defendant may be grounds for revocation.
9. If the defendant's employment requires the use of a computer, the defendant may use a computer in connection with the employment approved by the probation or pretrial services officer, provided the defendant notifies his employer of the nature of the conviction or charge. The probation or pretrial services officer shall confirm compliance with this notification requirement.
10. The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with accurate information about the defendant's entire computer system (hardware or software) and other electronic communication or data storage devices or media to include all passwords used and the name of the Internet Service Provider(s). The defendant also shall abide by the provisions of the Computer Restrictions and Monitoring Program approved by the Court.

ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

11. The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, business or place of employment, to a search, conducted by a United States probation or pretrial services officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

12. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer, pursuant to 28 C.F.R. § 28.12, the DNA Fingerprint Act of 2005, and the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006.
